CAMP GUIDELINES

All Campers must provide a completed and signed camp registration form (both sides).

Dress code consists of modest and appropriate clothing for all respective activities. Apart from swimming, shoes and sandals must be worn at all times.

Campers must attend all sessions unless excused by a pastor or the camp nurse.

No one is to leave the campground without the permission of their parents, a camp dean, or their respective pastor.

Campers must not leave their cabins after lights out without the permission of their counselor.

Arrangements can be made with the camp dean registrar for the safe-keeping of your child's canteen and offering money.

PARENTAL/GUARDIAN CONSENT

We hope to offer our campers opportunities for water-skiing, tubing or riding on motorized watercraft as well as swimming. Although we seek to offer such activities as safely as possible, some risk is naturally inherent with these activities. If these activities are offered, do you give your camper permission to participate?
